

VIRTUOSO THE FINE ARTS SOCIETY, SGGSCC REVIEW REPORT (2017-2018)

Virtuoso is the official fine arts society of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Delhi University. It's currently in the 5th year of its running, and has hosted multiple inter-college art fests. Members of Virtuoso have been going for art events around Delhi University and have made a mark for themselves at various art events by winning accolades.

PERFORMANCE INSIGHTS

KALAKARI: THE ANNUAL FEST

Proposed Date: 22nd February '18

Kalakari, the art fest is an annual event at Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce.

It is a platform for students across Delhi to exhibit their creative and innovative skills in varied forms of art including sketching, painting, crafts and more.

The one day event rolls out with Kalakriti, the art exhibition and presents to the participants from all across the colleges in Delhi with several challenging art competitions.

FRESHERS 2017

The society undertook the designing of the freshers' welcome board in association with the student union. Also, for the first time in history of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Virtuoso conducted a live painting session at the FRESHERS 2017 where our budding artists Ankit and Daman painted our favourite star-Diljit Dosanjh in just 7 minutes.

LAUNCH OF ART PRESS AND ART PRESS COMPETITION

The society launched an online feature series, showcasing exemplary artworks from universities from across the country and aiding the promotion of various talented artists.

An online competition was also organized by the team which witnessed participation of more than 200 artists and gained massive popularity among the creative group circles.

WORKSHOP AT THE AASHIMA FOUNDATION

On the hopeful prospect of Christmas, Virtuoso decided to bring cheer and joy into the lives of underprivileged children. Aashima Foundation is a vocational training center for underprivileged children. We visited there on the 23rd of December and conducted various fun-filled activities for the children. We also took the initiative to introduce them to the joy of art. Art techniques like finger painting, doodling etc. were taught to them.
