

Content Creator Intern Job Description:

- A candidate with a good personality who has a good number of followers on social media platforms.
- The candidate must have experience in creating strong, creative, and engaging content.
- Should have excellent research, communication, and time management skills.
- Using social media to engage consumers by making reels and posts.
- Suggest new ideas to the team for different promotional methods.
- Doing proper research to know about current trends.

Stipend: 3-5k/month

Content Writer Intern Job Description:

- The content writer internship includes excellent content writing skills to provide the best content.
- A technical content writer with the ability to interpret complex information into simple and effective language.
- The content writer should understand the client's requirements and should provide quality content with zero percent plagiarism and no internal duplicity.
- A web content writer to produce well-researched content for publication online.
- The content writer should coordinate with other team members to understand the requirements.
- This content writer internship needs a candidate who can work within deadlines and is accompanied by the ability to manage different projects simultaneously.
- The content writer should have proficiency with computers, especially writing programs such as Google Docs, Microsoft word, etc.

Stipend: 4-7k/month

Content Editor Intern Job Description:

- The candidate should be skilled in verbal and written English.
- When discussing projects with clients and colleagues, the candidate must exhibit exemplary communication skills.
- A solid analytical mindset is necessary for carrying out proofreader responsibilities.
- Should be competent in understanding and following the guidelines provided by the client.
- The candidate must be confident to edit the content wherever necessary.

- Ensuring the article is plagiarism-free, unique, and free of grammatical mistakes.
- The candidate must be a team player and still be able to handle projects independently.

Stipend: 4-7k/month

Graphic Designer Intern Job Description:

- Proficiency in graphic designing skills such as desktop publishing tools, photoshop, etc.
- Coming up with new and unique designs to attract more and more clients.
- Communicating with the clients about the layout and designs in order to understand their needs.
- Should have the ability to meet deadlines and provide quality work.
- Design, develop and produce advertisement materials that support and correspond with company marketing programs and sales.
- Good understanding of the latest trends and their role within the commercial environment.
- Reviewing the final layouts and making suggestions wherever necessary.

Stipend: 3-6k/month