

EMPLOYER'S FEEDBACK REPORT 2023-24

The placement cell has been a cornerstone of success, as acknowledged by all participating employers. Companies such as Chegg, ProcDNA, WTW, Crowe, and Planet Spark expressed profound gratitude for the seamless coordination and dedication demonstrated by the placement team. The efforts of the placement cell ensured smooth communication, effective follow-ups, and the successful organization of recruitment drives, fostering a professional and collaborative environment. Swageazy, appreciated the professionalism and unwavering support provided by the placement cell. Across the board, employers highlighted the placement cell's exemplary ability to facilitate meaningful engagements and create ample opportunities for students to showcase their potential.

Employers were highly impressed by the students' performance, citing qualities such as enthusiasm, dedication, and in-depth subject knowledge. Planet Spark and Crowe praised the students' intellectual depth and strong commitment, while WTW and JLL commended their active participation and curiosity. These attributes reflected the high-quality education imparted by the institution, as well as the students' readiness to excel in professional environments. The unanimous appreciation from employers underscores the institution's ability to nurture not only academically proficient students but also individuals equipped with essential interpersonal and problem-solving skills, making them valuable contributors to the workforce.

To better understand the distribution of positive feedback, the following pie chart categorizes the sources of appreciation:

- 1. Quality of Students (40%): Employers valued the students' academic capabilities, enthusiasm, and readiness for professional challenges, making this the most frequently praised aspect.
- 2. Placement Cell Support (35%): Recognized for its role in ensuring seamless operations and active engagement throughout the recruitment process.
- 3. Professionalism and Conduct (25%): Employers appreciated the institution's organized and professional approach to hosting recruitment drives effectively.

The pie chart further highlights these proportions, emphasizing the balanced contributions of both students and the placement cell in making the recruitment drives a resounding success.
